

The International School of Nice

Job Description: Economics Teacher

Short term contract for maternity leave

ISN seeks an Economics Teacher, who can provide excellent instruction and dynamic learning opportunities for High School, in alignment with ISN's vision and mission, while supporting Globeducate events when appropriate for the department. The Humanities department functions in a collaborative and supportive manner based on mutual respect and understanding, following a dynamic and internationally designed IGCSE and IBDP curricula.

All teachers at ISN are expected to effectively develop and deliver the curriculum to excellent standards.

You will be working within the Humanities Department composed of 5 members of staff. The department functions in a collaborative and supportive manner based on mutual respect and understanding. We strive to deliver a dynamic program at all levels and share best practices in an open and empathetic environment.

Teaching responsibilities:

- Plan and prepare learning activities that guide students towards achievement of curriculum objectives
- Use and develop a range of instructional techniques including inquiry based, project based and problem based learning using media consistent with available resources and student needs and capabilities
- Expand student use of individual and collaborative strategies to generate concepts and ideas
- Incorporate new technologies and tools in the creative process
- Evaluate each student's performance on a continual basis
- Prepare evaluative student reports
- Ensure the required standards of classroom management and student behavior are met
- Work collaboratively within the Humanities department

Responsibilities specifically related to student safety and student support:

- Collaborate with the SENCO to ensure that teachers are aware of students' specific learning needs.
- Ensure that students who meet requirements have inclusive assessment arrangements.
- Ensure all activities are carried out with due regard to health, safety and safeguarding, in accordance with the Child Protection Policy.
- Trained in Safeguarding and Duty of Care.

Education and Experience

- Qualified teaching certificate/licensure
- Strongly recommended degrees in economics or finance/statistics
- Strong classroom management
- An understanding of the approaches to teaching that include meaningful feedback, student reflection, and ATL skills.

Essential qualities:

- Positive, creative, collaborative teacher
- Committed to ensuring high standards of teaching and learning
- Flexible, resilient, supportive team player
- Passionate about learning
- Effective communicator
- Diplomatic, proactive, problem-solver
- Interculturally aware with well-developed interpersonal skills
- Well organized and efficient
- Able to meet deadlines